Safeguarding

Safeguarding Children is: Everyone's business; Everyone's Concern; Everyone's responsibility.

As part of our commitment to keeping everyone safe, we commissioned an external review of our safeguarding practices and procedures. A team from Birmingham City Council visited school on 5th October for a day. We are very pleased to say that the now published report is extremely positive and acknowledges all the strengths and our commitment to keeping our children safe. The report is available on request.

Parent's Evening Wednesday 18th October 2023

Thank you to all our parents who came to speak to class teachers about their child's progress.

WINTER SCHOOL UNIFORM

We appreciate that with the cold weather our children may need to wear boots to school, if so, they will need to bring their school shoes to change into. With regard to head scarfs, wrap around scarfs are not allowed, only pull on head scarfs. Also, could you please ensure your child wears a winter coat to school with a hat, scarf and gloves.

Pupils are required to wear the correct uniform, which adheres to our uniform policy, as listed below:

Boys

- Red sweatshirt with school logo
- White shirt
- Red/black tie
- Black/grey trousers
