Throughout the week, there will be plenty of fun activities taking place, including drama workshops, live author events and competitions.

The children can dress up as their favourite book characters on Friday 7th March 2025.

Attendance

Pupils that went abroad last academic year Sept 23-July 24, incurred either a fine or being summoned to court, which totalled to £4,868.06 of which was ordered by the legal and intervention team.

This academic year Sept 24-Feb 25 parents have incurred either a fine or being summoned to court, which tolled to so far £1,688 of which 3 families have been summoned to court.

It is imperative that children do not go abroad during term time. Permission will not be given as the local authority do not accept children going abroad during term time.
