Introduction

This pack sets out useful tips and advice for finding accommodation in Birmingham. It outlines the current housing picture within the City and highlights the demand for housing and the options available to you.

The information in this guide includes:

1. What housing options are available to you.
2. What is available in the market and how to access it.
3. How we can help and offer advice so you can make the right decision for you.

The city council will provide you with help and support to source accommodation; and by working together with you will be able to explore your full housing options.

When beginning your search for alternative accommodation it is important to remember that there is a shortage of affordable accommodation both locally and nationally; therefore, it is important that you approach your search with an open mind. You will greatly increase your chances of finding a suitable property by following the tips set out in this pack, creating a plan and considering all your housing options.

Throughout this booklet we will refer to Private Rented Sector (PRS) properties, which mean properties that are owned by private individual(s) and rented out to single people and/or families. The term 'Social Rented Housing' refers to properties that are owned and rented out by housing associations or the council.

It is important that you keep this booklet as it contains useful information. If you have any questions about the information in this booklet please contact Newtown Housing Options or for further help and support please visit our website here.

Private Rented Sector Options

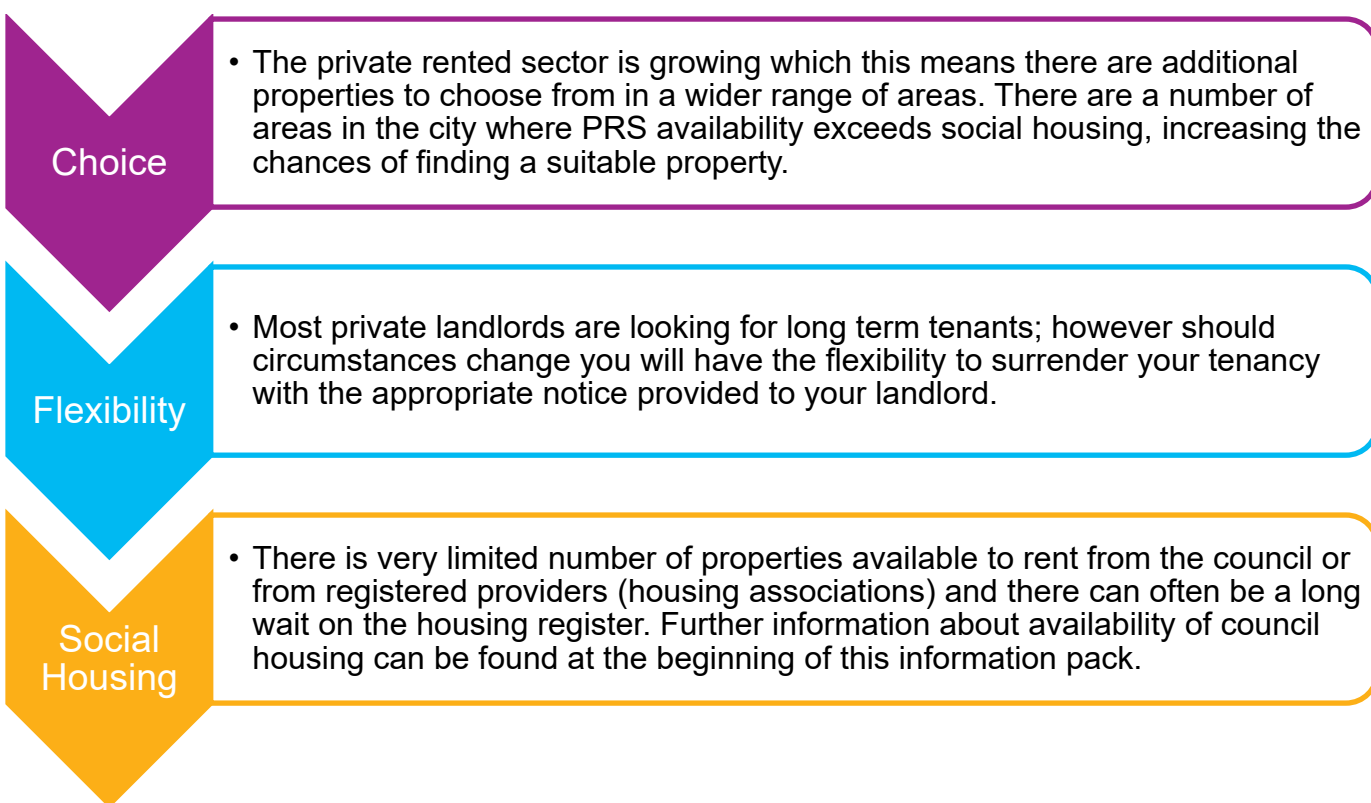

A Private Rented Sector property could be any type of residential property such as a house, flat, maisonette or bungalow. The property is owned by an individual or private company who then allows someone to live in it for a rental payment. In Birmingham we have a good supply of private rented properties in most areas of the city and it is estimated that there are around 80,000 private properties in the city compared to approximately 60,000 council properties. According to one internet website there are currently 4,575 privately rented homes available in Birmingham.

It is often easier, quicker and more convenient to secure a private rented property rather than experiencing a long wait on the city councils housing register. More information about the current average wait times for a council property by size and area can be found further on in this guide.

There are many factors to consider when searching for a new property, the main three are:

- Affordability
- Location
- How you will find a property

Why Rent Privately?

Deposits

Most Landlords or Estate Agents will require a deposit and a month's rent before you move into a property.

If you need help with a deposit, there are a couple of options which may be available to you:

Discretionary Housing Payment (DHP)

Discretionary Housing Payment is a payment you may receive at the discretion of the local authority to help towards housing costs; however, you can only get it if you are entitled to Housing Benefit/Universal Credit (housing costs element). It is available to people who are not receiving enough to cover their rent and is also available for one-off costs like a rent deposit, rent in advance or removal costs to help you move into a new home. DHP cannot be used to cover an increase in rent due to arrears or to make up the difference if an overpayment is being recovered.

For more information including how to apply please visit our website here.

Homeless Prevention Fund Grant

You may be able to access the Homeless Prevention Fund if you are homeless or threatened with homelessness. Homeless Prevention Fund grants can assist with preventing your homelessness by helping you remain in your current accommodation, or with securing new accommodation for example by contributing towards a deposit. For further information about the Homeless Prevention Fund please speak to your Housing Needs Officer.

Your landlord must put your deposit in a government-backed tenancy deposit scheme (TDP). In England your deposit can be registered with:

- Deposit Protection Service
- MyDeposits (including deposits that were held by Capita)
- Tenancy Deposit Scheme

Most fees charged by landlords and agents are banned from 1 June 2019. This includes letting, credit check and referencing fees.

Affordability

When considering renting a property you will need to work out how much you can afford to spend on rent each month. If you are on a low income you may be entitled to financial help with your renting costs through Housing Benefit or Universal Credit.

The amount of Housing Benefit paid to private tenants is capped at Local Housing Allowance (LHA) rates; and your LHA rate is worked out against your bedroom allowance (see table below).

The following bedroom entitlement is based on Local Housing Allowance rates:

- Two people over 10/under 21 are expected to share a room if they are the same sex;
- Two people under 10 are expected to share a room regardless of their sex;
- You are entitled to one bedroom for each single person or couple aged over 21.

The table below summarises current Local Housing Allowance room rates, valid from 1 April 2020. Please note that this is the maximum amount of LHA you will get – your actual benefit may be less depending on the amount of money you have coming in and if other adults apart from your partner live with you.

Number of Bedrooms	Category	Weekly Amount	Monthly Amount
1 bedroom with shared facilities	A	£67.00	£291.13
1 bedroom self-contained	B	£120.82	£524.99
2 bedrooms	C	£143.84	£625.02
3 bedrooms	D	£155.34	£674.99
4 or more bedrooms	E	£195.62	£850.02

These rates sometimes change so please follow this link to see what the latest figures are.

Remember, if you are struggling with a shortfall you can apply for a Discretionary Housing Payment from the Housing Benefit department. Please see earlier section in this booklet for further information.

Other Costs

Please seriously consider completing an income and expenditure form which can be used to help you take control of your financial situation. Once you know where you're spending your money, you can start to alter and prioritise what you do with your money to enable you to stick within your means and budget effectively.

Renting a home involves more than just being able to pay your rent. Below is a list of the most common bills you should expect to pay as a tenant:

- Water bills (usually paid monthly)
- Service charges (in some properties – paid monthly or annually)
- Council Tax (usually paid monthly - England/Scotland)
- Gas and Electricity bills (either by a pre-payment meter, monthly by Direct Debit)
- TV Licence – monthly by Direct Debit

Help 2 Rent

Birmingham City Council launched a scheme in October 2020 that is set to help hundreds of people find affordable housing and support landlords in the private rented sector.

Working with Help 2 Rent, an organisation that makes social housing simple for tenants and landlords, the scheme will look to provide incentives to landlords who offer 12-month fixed tenancies to those on the council's homeless and housing registers.

The scheme will enable landlords to select from a range of assurances such as landlord insurance, rental deposits or rental guarantees, that are often barriers to accepting those who are either on benefits, the council's housing register or low-income families as tenants.

Cllr Sharon Thompson, cabinet member for homes and neighbourhoods at Birmingham City Council said, "In the last decade, homelessness has risen exponentially and a lack of affordable housing, as well as the impact of the Covid pandemic across the city, is only exacerbating the situation with Birmingham receiving more than 6,000 homeless applications in the last year.

"We believe that everyone has the right to a decent home and while Birmingham City Council is the largest local authority housebuilder in the UK; with 19,500 people on its housing register, it can no longer meet the current level of demand needed to prevent homelessness across the city. It's therefore imperative that we unlock the potential of the private-rented sector to provide housing for those who are most in need.

"I'm extremely pleased that we have been able to launch this scheme that will provide the reassurances that landlords in the private-sector need, to allow us to rent their properties to those with lower incomes and provide much needed housing."

At the launch of the scheme, 93 households from the council's homeless register were identified and paired with landlords in the private-rented sector who have used the scheme to accept new tenancies.

House Hunting Tips

Looking for private rented accommodation in Birmingham can seem quite daunting, so we have put together some tips below to help you with your search. Always bear in mind that landlords and lettings agents will be looking for reliable tenants; who will pay the rent on time and keep the property in good condition.

Reliable
To Pay Rent on Time

Resilient
In your Search

Ready
To Move In

- Searching online or phoning landlords and lettings agents can be time consuming and it is likely you will need to make several searches and calls before you will be viewing properties.
- Wherever possible visit lettings agents in person; remember they are working on behalf of the landlord.
- Present yourself well and be prepared to tell them a little about yourself and show them any references you may have.
- Don't just contact one or two lettings agencies. Keep regular track of all the agencies that serve the areas you want to live in, and make sure you're checking local newspapers, websites, community noticeboards, shop windows etc. The wider your search is, the more likely you will be successful.
- When you have viewings of properties be on time, be friendly, look presentable and make sure you have your questions written down and ready to ask; also take ID with you such as a passport, driving licence or utility bill.
- If you have previous landlord references or something similar make copies of them and provide them to landlords and agents.
- Before signing anything, always view a property and raise any questions or concerns you have, making sure these are answered.
- You should consider a wide range of areas as possible when searching where you would like to live to give yourself a better chance of finding somewhere suitable. Consider areas on the outskirts of Birmingham that have good transport links.
- When your tenancy begins you should be provided with:
 1. a gas safety certificate,
 2. energy saving certificate
 3. details of your deposit scheme and
 4. a copy of your tenancy agreement.
- Where possible pay your rent by card or bank transfer and clearly label the transaction. If you do not have access to this, your landlord should provide a rent book. Please ensure that you receive receipts for payments.

Owning Your Own Home

If you have savings or a suitable deposit, you should consider whether buying a property is an option for you. There is a range of support available to help people buy their own home through Help to Buy schemes.

If you can't quite afford the mortgage on 100% of a home, there are government schemes that can assist you. For example, 'Help to Buy: Shared Ownership' is a part-buy, part-rent scheme which allows you to buy a percentage of your home (between 25% and 75% of the home's value) and pay rent on the remaining share. You can then buy the rest of the new home if and when you want to.

You could buy a home through Shared Ownership in England if:

- your household earns £80,000 a year or less;
- you are a first-time buyer or
- you used to own a home but can't afford to buy one now, or
- you are an existing shared owner looking to move.

With 'Help to Buy: Shared Ownership' you can buy a newly built home or an existing one through resale programmes from housing associations. You'll need to take out a mortgage to pay for your share of the home's purchase price, or fund this through your savings.

An alternative scheme is 'Help to Buy: Equity Loan' which could be suitable for you if you want to own a newly built home in England. Through this scheme you could borrow up to 20% of the purchase price from the government and you'd only need a 5% deposit.

This link will walk you through a number of simple questions/stages to help you review the best option for you if you are considering owning your own home:

Social Housing

Birmingham is a great place to live however the demand for council and housing association properties far outstrips supply. Very few people who apply for housing will be successful. Therefore, you will need to consider all other housing options.

The social housing stock is made up of blend of council owned homes and homes provided by housing associations and registered providers such as Midland Heart and Bournville Village Trust.

A full list of Housing Associations operating in Birmingham can be found here.

Facts to Consider before applying for a Council Property

The demand for council housing is extremely high and in January 2023 there were over 19,500 households on the housing register.

Even if no new applicants came forward, it would take many years to clear the current housing register.

Properties are offered to housing applicants who have expressed an interest (bid) for available properties through Birmingham's choice-based lettings scheme. Recent let data can be viewed here.

Birmingham City Council advertise an average of 100 properties a week and receive approximately 500 applications each week.

Please bear this in mind when looking at your housing options and if you are considering applying to join the council's housing register. Where possible you should keep your options open, and always consider Private Rented Sector housing (discussed earlier on in this document).

Housing Register Statistics

There are 19,500 applicants on the housing register

There are many more customers on the housing register than there are properties available. This can lead to significant waiting times, especially for larger accommodation.

There are large numbers of applicants in each Band award and there are 31.5% who have met the criteria for a Band A need.

The below chart shows the total number and percentage of housed applicants by applicant type since April 2017:

Lettings made between January 2022 and January 2023

44% of all lettings made are for 1-bedroom accommodation.

Nominations to properties owned by Registered Social landlords

Birmingham City Council has a nominations agreement with registered social landlords (also referred to as Housing Associations or Registered Providers (RPs). Under this agreement, these landlords are committed to allocating a certain percentage of their stock for use on Birmingham City Councils' housing register.

Of the total 2885 lettings made by Birmingham City Council, 634 were nominations to registered social landlords.

Below is a table listing the RPs Birmingham City Council has a nominations agreement with.

Social Housing Exchanges

You can apply to swap properties if you are a secure council tenant or an assured tenant of a Registered Social Landlord. Usually two tenants swap their homes, but it is possible to have several tenants involved in a “chain” of swaps.

Your tenancy agreement will confirm what type of tenant you are. If you are an introductory tenant, you can't swap properties. You need to wait until you become a secure tenant.

A swap can be a faster way of finding a new home than applying for a transfer. If you're a Birmingham City Council tenant, you can register with Homeswapper, a free online service that lets you search for people who might want to swap homes.

You must get your landlord's permission before you swap homes.

Supported Housing

Supported housing exists to ensure those with support needs can lead a healthy and fulfilling life within their own home and community. While the services range widely, they all play a crucial role in providing a safe and secure home with support for people to live independently.

This includes:

- Providing the support older people need to maintain their independence.
- Providing emergency refuge and support for victims of domestic abuse, helping them to stabilise their lives and engage with other services.
- Working with homeless people with complex and multiple needs to help them make the transition from life on the street to a having a settled home, education, training or employment.
- Supporting people with mental health needs to stabilise their lives, recover and live more independently.
- Supporting ex-servicemen and women to find a stable home, including support for those with mental health and physical disability needs.
- Supporting people with learning disabilities in the longer term to maximise their independence and exercise choice and control over their lives.

If you have a support officer either they, or your Housing Needs Officer, can help you get in touch with supported housing providers, or alternatively you can search online for providers in Birmingham.
