Our value for this half term is CARE

Welcome Back to the second half-term. We hope you enjoyed a restful and refreshing break. I am pleased to tell you our school had a little transformation! Three of our communal walls have been beautifully brought to life with new art work that celebrates who we are as a school community. We now have a vibrant book wall showcasing our wonderful texts our children enjoy, a welcome display in the foyer to greet everyone who visits St Saviour's and our Christian vision statement displayed proudly in the hall. Together these displays have really brightened our school environment and reflect the joy and creativity that fill our classrooms every day. ( Mrs Page)

For parents, safeguarding should be a combination of proactive measures and vigilant awareness, many elements of which we will complete naturally, but it is always useful to take a step back and consider how you are maintaining the key elements of safeguarding your own children:

- Building strong relationships with your children
- Teaching essential safety skills
- Awareness of potential and changing risks that you children may encounter
- Trusting your own safeguarding instincts
- Adapting your safeguarding rules as your child grows and matures, in line with above.

Attendance: Regular attendance builds discipline and helps children achieve success. Every day counts—please ensure your child attends school regularly!
